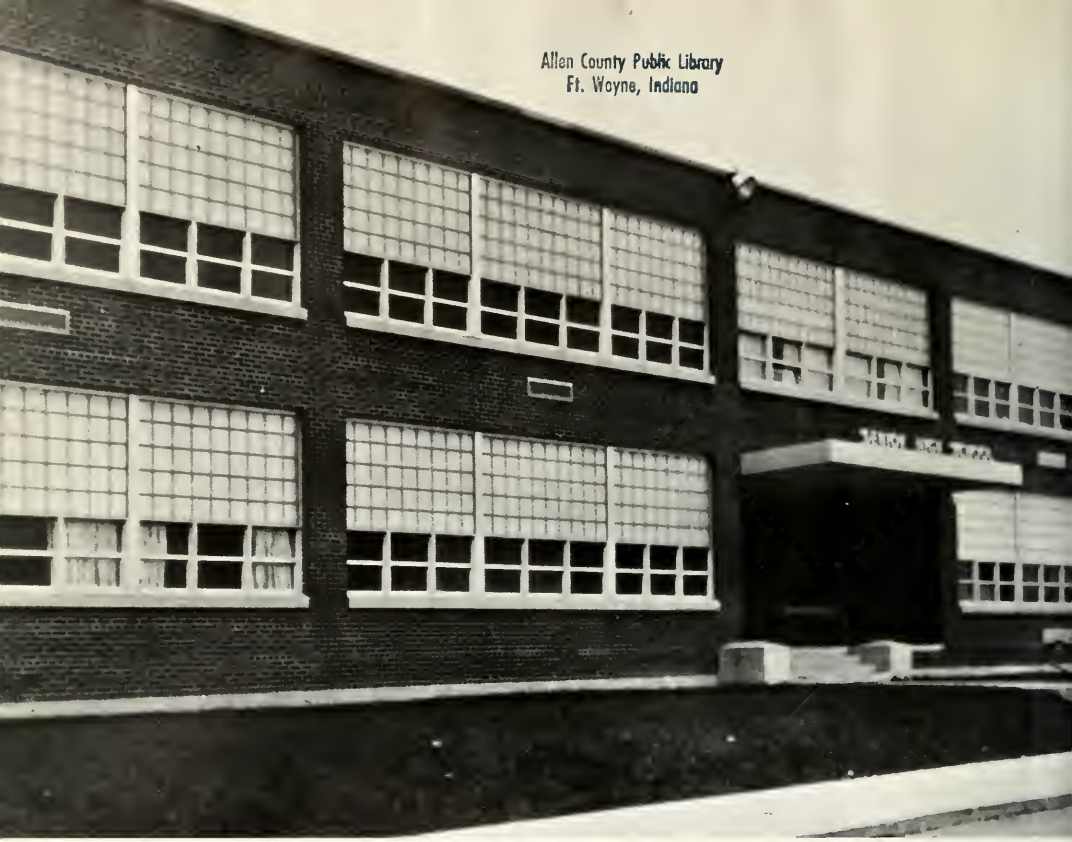
VOLUME XXIV

NEW HAVEN HIGH SCHOOL

NEW HAVEN, INDIANA

Allen County Public Library
Ft. Wayne, Indiana



This year at New Haven High School held challenging opportunities for each of us in academics, sports, and activities. Along with these things, 1963 also contained a multitude of memories. As the school year passed, we attended numerous classes covering a wide curriculum. We cheered our football and basketball teams with enthusiasm. We took part in various activities — sports, clubs, and social affairs. Our passing fads and rapidly changing slang were as much a part of the year as the old and new friendships which added much to our fun.

Let's keep these memories by . . .

The secretaries, cooks, and custodians often do their work without recognition. Few students realize the impartance of the positions these people hold. The secretaries keep school records in order. The cooks work each day to prepare hot lunches for all the students. The custodians have the difficult task of keeping our school clean. We thank these people for the work they do.

ENGLISH FORMS OUR

A part of each student's curriculum is public speaking. We find Sheila Murphy demonstrating her skill.

The English department develops our skill of reading, writing, and speaking correct English. Literature broadens our knowledge horizons. We learn the accepted forms of grammar in our classes. Through our speech courses we learn to conquer our fear of speaking before public groups.

We begin our high school English courses with simple compositions; we progress each year until we reach the difficult term papers of our advanced classes.

The teachers in this department are Mr. Daniel Boylan, Mrs. Mary Ditlinger, Mr. Radford Huff, Mr. Thomas Lamb, Mr. Francis May, Mr. C. Eugene Price, and Mr. Milton Sinn.

ALGEBRA + GEOMETRY = HARD WORK

The Mathematics Department encourages the students to learn to think for themselves. Advancing through algebra, geometry, and more difficult courses, students acquire the skill to solve the problems that are presented in these classes. All students who enroll in mathematics courses benefit from the experience.

Mr. Hunnings, Mr. Marshall, Mr. Sauders, Mr. Weaver, and Mr. Wilder are the teachers for this department.

Shirley Geels and Joyetta Roemer point out the different types of geometric figures thot students need to know in thot closs.

Mr. Stephan gives his class suggestions an how to imprave their typing.

The class watches intently as Mrs. West explains a shorthand illustration.

SKILL — A MUST IN BUSINESS

Diane Krueckeberg uses the dictating machine to complete an assignment.

The Business Department prepares students so that they are able to accept the responsibility of a job after high school. The department's courses — ranging from General Business, typing, and shorthand to Business Law, bookkeeping, and secretarial practice — offer the students a variety of classes to acquaint them with the business world. This department, which is equipped with the most modern business books and machines, provides a worthwhile education to all students.

Mr. Downey, Mr. Goeglein, Mr. Oberlin, Mr. Stebing, Mr. Stephan, and Mrs. West are the commercial teachers.

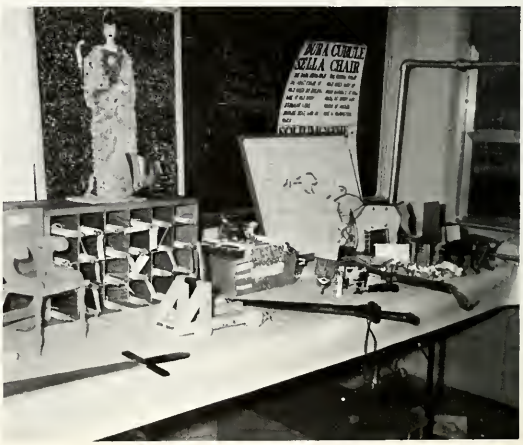
These are only a few of the many Latin projects which each Latin student was required to complete.



These students learn German in many ways. One of the most used ways is to write the words on the board so that everyone may see the work.

TIES WITH OTHER LANDS

Foreign language is a basic requirement in our modern world. The Foreign Language Department in New Haven High School offers Latin, French, and German. Through these courses the students learn the language, history, and customs of the people of the country from which the language comes. By reading, studying, and translating the material written in the foreign language the class feels more closely associated with the foreign nation.

The teachers for this department are Miss Burke, Mrs. Rogers, Mr. Seger, and Mr. Steinbach.

Along with learning the language of the country, French students also study customs, maps, and the history of France.

A port of each class period is spent in exercising.

The Physical Education department strives to achieve physical fitness. Included in the year's activities are tumbling, basketball, baseball, softball, track, and modern dancing.

The instructors for this department are Miss Berkeypile and Mr. Baumgartner.

MUSIC — THE INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE

Music has no language barrier since both vocal and instrumental music may be appreciated by all. The Music department in New Haven High School offers the students the opportunity to become members of either the bands or the choirs. Along with playing or singing in these groups the students learn basic fundamentals of music.

The directors in this department are Mr. Milliman and Mr. Best, band directors, and Mr. Nicholas, choir director.

One of the activities in which both vocalists and instrumentalists take part is the solo and ensemble contest. These girls are practicing their parts in a woodwind ensemble.

LET'S LOOK AT ACTIVITIES

CONCERT

The eighty-two members of the New Haven High School Concert Band presented many enjoyable concerts during the year. Among these programs were the Winter and Spring Concerts, a high school assembly, and music for Commencement.

The band also provided the music at the home basketball games. The Concert Band entered the State Band contest. Many solos and ensembles were entered in the district and state NISBOVA music contests.

The band activities ended with the traditional spring Awards Banquet.

The band is under the direction of Mr. Paul Milliman assisted by Mr. Ron Best.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is an organization which functions to serve the student body. At each meeting, the homeroom representatives present problems students have in the school. The Student Council tries to find solutions. The Student Council also sponsors activities for social enjoyment, such as the Halloween party and Snowball Hop. The sponsors, Mr. Bonahoom, Mr. Goeglein, Mr. Huff, and Mrs. Sidell, help officers: Bobbi Craig, pres.; Len Guthier, vice-pres.; Steve Sauers, sec'y; and Miriam Werling, treas. with any problems they may have. In the fall, many members attended an all-day state convention of Student Council, where New Haven's name was drawn to send a representative to the national convention, held at Ann Arbor, Michigan, during the 1963 summer vacation.

These decorations show just a part of the hard work that Student Council members do to make the annual Snowball Hop a success.

Twilo Watkins, toking part in the annuol NFL assembly, tells the students about the "Unsinkable Molly Brown."

"And the first ribbon goes to . . ." This is the statement which every hard-working NFL member hopes will include his name. These speaking experiences mean many hours of practice with the National Forensic League sponsors, Mr. May, Mr. Boylan, Mr. Price, and Mr. Sinn; going to several speech tourneys on Saturdays while missing a day at the library or a date is a time of learning. One gains new friends, new knowledge, and a new challenge.

This year at the New Haven Tourney, NFL ranked first and had one of the best organized tourneys. As the organization follows its officers (President Gene Campbell, Secretary Sharon Dew, and Treasurer Pat Alexander), it reaches out for its goal of grace and poise while speaking.

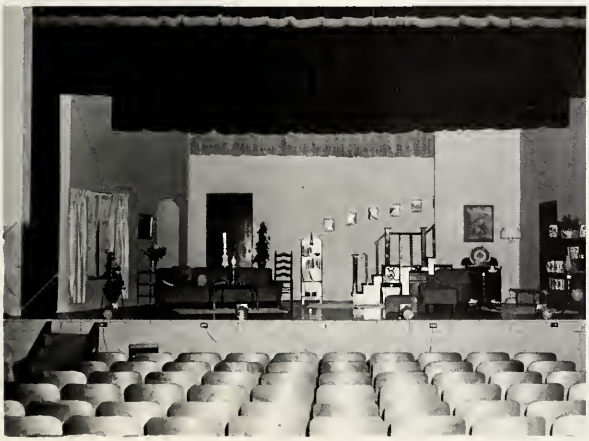
MASQUE AND GAVEL

This is the stage as it appeared before the cast of "Time Out for Ginger" presented the play to the audience.



Masque and Gavel, the drama organization, presents several one-act plays during the year and a three-act play each spring. In 1962 the three-act play was "Time Out for Ginger." This spring the group will present "Our Town." The one-act plays this year were "Paul Splits the Atom," "Life of the Party," "Three Is a Crowd," and "Child Wonder."

The sponsors are Mr. May, Mr. Boylan, and Mr. Sinn. The officers are Larry Bushkill, president; Len Guthier, vice-president; Twilo Watkins, secretary; Shari Bartels, treasurer.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The New Haven Chapter of Future Teachers has as its goal to produce more quality teachers. Through this organization students learn more about the teaching profession through panel discussions, information bulletins, and conventions.

Members of the New Haven FTA attended several state conventions including the Spring Convention at Ball State Teachers College.

The club is sponsored by Mr. Jean Beugnot with officers Dianna Frane, president; Janet Alexander, vice-president; Lyn Glendening, secretary; and Martha Dumford, treasurer.

The members of High School Red Cross participated in several beneficial projects during the year.

The purpose of High School Red Cross, a volunteer, non-profit organization sponsored by Mrs. Ditlinger, is to be of service to all people. The club's officers are Sandy Koehlinger, president; Neal Carnes, vice-president; Adele Adler, secretory; Karen Drayer, treasurer; Lois Scare, publicity chairman; Doris Rahden and Sue Hanley, Chapter House representatives. Projects of the High School Red Cross this year included giving a Thonksgiving dinner to a needy family, Christmas caroling at the old folks' home, and making Easter baskets for hospitalized children. They also helped sponsor the Red Cross dance at the Coliseum during the Sectional Tourney.

RED CROSS AND FUTURE NURSES

The Future Nurses learned much helpful information concerning the nursing careers.

Throughout the year the Future Nurses' program is based on learning the duties that are included in a nursing career. Special activities this year have been movies about nursing, reports concerning area nursing schools, and speakers from the nursing profession. The club also knitted slippers for patients at the long-term hospital, took a trip during Easter vacation to the Indianapolis Medical Center and the Riley Children's Hospital, and gave a Mother-Daughter Banquet. The officers for this year are Martha Mofit, president; Barbara Cass, vice-president; Mary Bowlin, secretary; and Susie Nosh, treasurer. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Troyer.

"Friends, Romans, Countrymen . . ." presenting the Latin Club. This is a group of two hundred thirty-six students who have completed second year Latin or who are completing it. They learn how one of the first democratic nations aspired to great success and fell in despair. At each meeting their sponsor, Mrs. Rogers, and their officers — Ken Hendrichs and Steve Augenstein, Consuls; Sheryl Baker, Scriba; Linda Purvsi, Censor; Pat Alexander, Quaestor; Carol Holloway, Ianitor; and John Allspaugh, Dictator — plan a program such as slides of Rome, which the Roman enthusiasts will enjoy. Each year the club plans a trip to the Junior Classical League Convention and initiates the freshmen. This year, instead of the banquet, the Latin Club will have Roman Games, which will include a parade and chariot races.

LATIN CLUB

At the annual Latin Banquet held last spring, all first year Latin students were required to serve as slaves.

The atmosphere of old Rome was brought about by the use of costumes and a Roman-styled banquet.

This year was the first full year the German Club has been formed. The members of this club study German customs, art, and other ways of life. The club worked in the canteen and sponsored a dance to earn money. The officers are Dennis Herman, president; Susie Scott, vice-president; Miriam Werling, secretary; Steve Irwin, treasury. Mr. Steinbach is the sponsor.

FRENCH AND GERMAN CLUBS

The French Club officers, seated in the center of the FRONT ROW, are (left to right) Bob Robeson, president; Jan Alexander, vice-president; Cathy Clarke, secretary; and Bobbi Craig, treasurer.

The French Club, which is sponsored by Miss Burke, meets for the purpose of learning more about French customs, history, and language. The members take part in panels, give reports, and show pictures concerning France.

The officers are Bob Robeson, president; Janet Alexander, vice-president; Cathy Clarke, secretary; and Bobbi Craig, treasurer.

Y-TEENS

With such enthusiastic response in membership, this large group had to be divided to make it possible to include all members in a picture.

Y-Teens, a new organization at New Haven which takes the place of the Sunshine Society, has been very busy serving the community this year. At Thanksgiving and Christmas Y-Teens Club filled food baskets for needy families; but the Y-Teens group does not stop with helping the community. They have adopted a Korean orphan whose support is taken out of the treasury.

The Club could not exist without the fine sponsorship of Miss Leuenberger and Miss Manifold, who help Carol Halloway, president; Twilo Watkins, vice-president; Karen Kern, secretary; Bev Ronberg, treasurer; and Candy Brubaker, devotions chairman, make important decisions.

In the spring all the girls helped plan and decorate for the annual turn-about dance which is always a success.

The Y-Teen officers are (left to right) Candy Brubaker, devotions chairman; Twilo Watkins, vice-president; Carol Halloway, president; Bev Ronberg, treasurer; Karen Kern, secretary.

These girls, along with those pictured above, work to make the Y-Teens' goal a reality.

The Science Club consists of those who are interested in the realm of Mother Nature. It explores the known and unknown of nature while creating young scientists for the future. While the sponsors, Mr. Hunnings, Mr. Wolfe, Mr. Bandelier, Mr. Wilder, and Mr. Sauders, help the students with projects in which they are entering, each one gains a little more knowledge that aids him then, as well as later in life.

This year Science Club has set up a point system under the supervision of its officers: President Dennis Berkhiser, Vice President Dave Hathaway, Secretary Rhea Keller and Treasurer Steve Hobbs, in which the goal is a pin. One of the club's activities is to operate the coat-check at basketball games.

The Home Economics Club, a recently-formed organization, works to promote interest in home economics. This year the club has had several demonstrations, including tips about hair care and food preparations. Films have been shown concerning good home economics practices.

The club, at Thanksgiving, gave food to a needy family. During the Christmas season the club adopted a family through the Christmas Bureau and donated clothes and toys to the family.

Money-making projects included sponsoring an aftergame dance and working in the canteen.

The club's sponsor is Mrs. Colderbank. The officers are president, Sandy Koehlinger; vice-president, Sherri Getty; secretary, Patricia Isenborger; treasurer, Yvonne Fisher; personnel director, Marilyn Jones.

SENIORS

In September, 1959, two hundred forty-four bewildered freshmen entered New Haven High School to prepare for their future roles in life. Each year, as they participated more in school activities, they learned more about school life. Soon the responsibility of organizing clubs, leading teams in various sports, and learning new, difficult subjects came to rest upon their shoulders. As they progressed through each new grade, the class members changed their career plans many times. When their senior year finally arrived, most seniors had decided what vocation they would follow. Those going on for higher education had chosen the college most suitable for them. The year was filled with scholastic tests, college applications, important decisions, and hard work.

Now, as the Class of 1963 prepares for their Baccolaureate and Commencement exercises, they can look back to their high school days with memories of dances, ball games, clubs, classes and people. They are looking ahead to colleges, jobs, new friends, and a new way of life.
